

Story Slam

The Georgian Bay Story Slam is coming to Collingwood in November!

We are a live, true story telling competition interspersed with live music for an amazing evening of story and song.

After two great events this past spring and summer at the Heartwood Hall in Owen Sound, we are moving down the coast in search of fresh talent.

Members of the community are invited to get involved! We are putting the call out for participants from the Collingwood area.

Experience is not necessary but a great, true (to you) story is!

To enter, please send a synopsis of your true tale to georgianbaystoryslams@gmail.com

The rules are:

- 1) Stories must be true to you.
- 2) Told in ten minutes or less.
- 3) No notes or cue cards! (just tell it from the heart!)
- 4) Story tellers must be 18 years of age.

There is no theme for this next Slam- stories can run the gamut from the hilarious to the heartwarming and everything in between.

For further details and to learn what we are all about - like and follow our Facebook page called Georgian Bay Story Slam.

Members of the audience who are inspired to get involved can enter our wild card draw! One lucky entrant will have their name selected to share a tale and compete for the cash prize. Our last two winners, Mali Rosen and Bill Monahan each took home a $200 purse for their beautifully told tales! Collingwood's newest hotspot -the brand new Crow Bar & Variety is rolling out the red carpet for us on November 9 at 7 pm. For the love of story and song - join us!

Tickets are available now at the Crow Bar & Variety - 18 Huron St., Collingwood @ only $10 each.

Reservations recommended for the evening!
